

General Data Protection Regulation, GDPR, is a regulation valid from 2018-05-25 within the whole EU. For more information about what GDPR is please see <https://www.datainspektionen.se/other-lang/in-english/the-general-data-protection-regulation-gdpr/>

How do we at Lars Lovik AB work with GDPR?

We want our customers and supplier's faith and trust in us handling their data in a safely and responsible way.

The information we store have been obtained through correspondence and agreements or from official channels like homepages and exhibitions. We only store the kind of information which find necessary for us to fulfill our commitments to customers and suppliers and where there are legal basis for us to possess.

What data do we save?

*Name, phone number and e-mail to persons who in their profession has been in contact with us.

*Mail- and delivery address to customers and suppliers

Please feel free to contact us (contact information at the bottom on this side) if you want to know more about the information we keep about you, or if you want to change or delete any info.

Data transmission

The personal data is forwarded to other liable only when it is required to fulfil a contractual obligation, for example contact information in terms of name and phone number when ordering from our subcontractor or when we book a shipment. Furthermore, data can be transmitted to other task managers if we, due to legal regulations or court orders, are obliged to do so.

For how long?

We store our customer's and supplier's information as long as we have an eligible interest in them or as long as we are obliged according to law (for example accounting act).
